

Acer Platanoides

Norway Maple

Non-Native, Invasive

A

Acer Platinoides Is a large tree that can be identified by large growth distance between terminal buds and the wide Samaras that it produces.

Landscape Notes: This plant is on the quarantine list

Leaves: Opposite Leaves.
Lobed with 5-7 lobes, square, leaf margin smooth.
Palmate venation.
Exudes milky white sap from the petiole when detached.

Buds

Bark

Seeds

Non-Native

Invasive